TOP GEAR GOES LIVE!

Jeremy Clarkson, Richard Hammond and James May are going on tour. And there's not a caravan in sight. Instead, the preferred mode of transport at today's press launch at Top Gear Live is a big black military tank.

In typical Top Gear style, the three motoring presenters stunned drivers and saluted fans as they thundered across London's Tower Bridge to mark the capital as the debut venue for its UK and world tour.

For eight days at two venues - [30 October - 2 November] at London's Earls Court and [13-16 November] at Birmingham's NEC - Jezza, Hamster and Captain Slow will host Top Gear Live at the MPH The Prestige & Performance Motor Show.

During 10 separate performances at each venue more than 95,000 car fans can watch the team unleash automotive mayhem, take on crazy challenges, preside over breathtaking stunts and engage in hilarious motoring tomfoolery during each 75-minute live action show. Even The STIG will be there to show them how it's done.

Home to more than 200 of the fastest cars on the planet, this year's £30million MPH supercar-fest is scheduled to feature an A-Z of automotive exotica from the likes of Alfa Romeo, Ariel, Aston Martin, Audi, Bentley, Bugatti, Caparo, Farbio, Ferrari, Gumpert, Jaguar, Koenigsegg, Lamborghini, Lotus, Maserati, McLaren, Mitsubishi, Nissan, Pagani, Porsche, Rolls-Royce, Shelby, Spyker, and TVR.

Tickets for MPH featuring Top Gear Live are now on sale at www.mphshow.co.uk/info or through the ticket hotline 0871 230 7150. Tickets cost between £38-105.
